A painting of His Highness the Maharaja was received from Mr Wacksler today and is placed in the room of the Extraordinary Member of Council. The same was inspected by the Secretary & the Dewan. It was first to be decided whether the picture is to be put up in the Council Chamber or in the Central Hall. The question as to the exact spot where the picture may be put up in either of the above places was discussed by the Secretary and Mr Wacksler and the following alternative proposals are submitted for consideration

I Council Chamber:- A plan of the Council Chamber with the present arrangement of pictures is put up. The painting of His Highness may be put up

1. in place marked A in plan. This will displace the almirah now there
2. in place marked B. This will displace Mr Bowring's picture which may be put up in A.

II Durbar Hall

The picture may be put up against the 2nd set of pillars from Central portico towards the Dewan's office side

In my humble opinion, place A in the Council Chamber would be the best. A separate portrait of His Highness may be obtained for being placed in the big Durbar Hall.

Mr Wecksler had come here on Saturday the 13th inst and fixed the picture in both the places A + B in the Sketch. He now thinks that place A is unsuitable on account of the glare and prefers place B to locate the picture. If this is approved Mr Bowring's portrait now in B will be transferred to A.

Dear M. Neckles

As the arrangement agreed to, was that you should see the Dewan in person in regard to fixing up His Highness' Portrait I have since taken Separate action in the matter and considered a reference to the Dewan by letter not necessary. I am accordingly returning the letter addressed to the Dewan by you and shall intimate to you again after the Dewan's approval to the proposed alteration is accorded
